Café Church

Café Church resumes next Sunday, in Smallfield Church Hall. Starting at 3pm, there is time for themed activities, refreshments (including cake) and chat, before a short talk and some singing. This month's subject is the Epiphany. Everyone is welcome and there is something for all ages.

Pantomime in Purley

For your chance to cheer for the goodies and to boo at the baddies come and enjoy the tale of Robin Hood performed by The Pantoloons, a pantomime group based in Purley. Performances will be at The United Reformed Church, Brighton Road, Purley, CR8 2LN, from Wednesday 29 January until Saturday 1 February at 7.30pm. The matinée performance on the Saturday has already sold out! Tickets are £10 for adults and £7 for children under 16 years. We will donate the majority of the income to Pancreatic Cancer UK.

Tickets can be booked via <http://www.pantoloons.com>, where you will find a link to Ticket Source on the home page. Don't miss this opportunity of a great night out, and booing the Sheriff of Nottingham played by Steve Bishop – after all, how often do you get to boo a cleric?!
